I.D(L). No. 25/2022
CNR. NO.PYPY06-000084-2022

The President/Secretary,
All India United Trade Union Centre,
Puducherry. . . Petitioner

Versus

The Managing Director,
M/s. E-Mox Manufacturing Private Limited,
Assembly Division,
Puducherry-607 402. . . Respondent

This industrial dispute coming on this day before me for hearing in the presence of S. Sivakumar, President of the Union appearing for petitioner and Thiruvalargal K. Babu, S. Karthikeyan, Counsels for the respondent and upon hearing the learned Counsel for petitioner and respondent and on perusing the entire records of the case, having stood over for consideration till this date, this Court delivered the following:

AWARD

This Industrial Dispute has been referred by the Government as per the G.O. Rt. No. 132/AIL/Lab./T/2022, dated 05-08-2022 for adjudicating whether the industrial dispute raised by the Trade Union viz., All India United Trade Union Centre (AIUTUC), Puducherry, against the Management of M/s. E-Mox Manufacturing Private Limited, Puducherry, over non-employment of Thiru A. Govindaraj justified or not? If justified, what relief the Petitioner is entitled to?

(b) To compute the relief if any, awarded in terms of money if, it can be so computed?

2. Brief averments set forth in the claim statement is as follows :

The respondent company is involved in the manufacturing of mosquito repellent assembly unit and around 400 workers are employed in it. The petitioner joined the respondent company with effect from 01-06-2006 in the Production Department. On 15-09-2021, the petitioner was not allowed to work and when enquired no proper details were given. On 18-01-2021 and 01-11-2021, he wrote a letter to the respondent company requesting for job which was not received and so he sent the same through registered post which were unclaimed by the respondent company and so he approached the Trade Union for his remedy.

(ii) On 13-06-2022, a letter was sent to the Conciliation Officer and the respondent company failed to reply and so, the dispute was referred to this Court. The Standing Orders of the respondent company is not as per law and was obtained by receiving the signature of the contract labourers. The petitioner was also not provided the bonus for the year 2021 and the same was issued during the conciliation proceedings.

(iii) The petitioner is serving in the respondent company for the past 16 years and without any proper explanation, his service has been terminated and his request also denied. From 15-09-2021 the petitioner is jobless and suffering to maintain his family. Hence, the petition.

3. Brief averments in the counter filed by the Respondent is as follows :

The claim made by the petitioner on behalf of Mr. A. Govindaraj, over his non-employment and the allegations contained in the claim statement are baseless, vexatious, devoid of merits and concocted with reference to the facts alleged and is not maintainable in law or on facts and liable to be dismissed. The petitioner Union has no representative character to raise any charter of demands or any other dispute as against this respondent as there is no espousal of the dispute by a substantial number of workmen as required by law, in order to sustain an industrial dispute. Only a workman can approach the Conciliation Officer/Labour Court/Industrial Tribunal in respect of his claim if any. Admittedly, Mr. A. Govindaraj does not fall within the ambit of workman, he was initially appointed as Production Supervisor with effect from 01-06-2006 vide appointment order, dated 31-05-2006 and then promoted as Senior Officer - Production with revision of salary with effect from 01-04-2017 vide letter, dated 11-10-2017. His last drawn monthly salary was ₹ 30,235. He was functioning as shift incharge and responsible to train and conduct workmen, resolves problems in the production line and ensure output of productivity from the workers. His job profile, monthly emoluments and other privileges are in line with the Management Category. Under such circumstances, the respondent prays to take up the issue of jurisdiction and the authority of the petitioner Union as preliminary issues among other issues and decide the same at the first instance.

(ii) In the month of July 2020, the respondent management came to know that he was running a manpower contract and on enquiry he informed the respondent management that his sister was running the manpower contract and assured that he would have over the contract to someone else. The respondent company is engaged in manufacture of mosquito repellent machine assembly and the petitioner has insisted only night shift duties in the months of August and September 2021 and the respondent management allowed him to come in night shifts. Thereafter he continued to insist night shift duty permanently. The respondent management got repeated complaints against him for sleeping during working hours and decided to inquire the matter. On enquiry the respondent management was shocked to find that the said Govindaraj has setup a manpower organization namely, K.M.Enterprises in the name of his wife Mrs. G. Santhi and was supplying around 200 manpower to M/s. Star Converters located at Kilianur Main Road, Konjumangalam who is a competitor for the respondent factory and they are also producing similar products using the same machinery and technology of what respondent was using. He worked in the respondent organization and has got 15 years of experience and has through knowledge in the production and business of the respondent.

(iii) The petitioner obtained EPF, ESIC Registration Certificate under the Shops and Establishment Act in the name of his organization M/s. K.M.Enterprises at Puducherry. The petitioner has misused the respondent company computer, printer and stationary for printing the salary ledger of his own enterprises and was caught red-handed and asked to attend a preliminary enquiry on 14-09-2021 in the presence of the Factory Manager and the Production Manager and produced all the evidence and the petitioner got tensed and thrown resignation letter in anger and left the premises immediately. The management decided to initiate disciplinary action against him and as such he was issued with a detailed charge-sheet, dated 12-11-2021. Even on receipt of the said charge-sheet the petitioner has not submitted any explanation. An domestic enquiry was conducted on 04-12-2021, 21-12-2021, 10-01-2022 and 12-02-2022 and even on providing ample time and opportunity the charge-sheeted official never attended the enquiry on the dates mentioned above and the enquiry was proceeded ex parte.

(iv) The findings of the enquiry were supported by the logical reasoning and applications of mind by the Enquiry Officer. After considering the gravity of the misconduct, a show cause notice, dated 23-03-2022 seeking his comments on the enquiry report. Since, the conciliation proceedings were pending and subsequently the matter was referred to this Court, the respondent has not taken further action. Considering the conduct of the petitioner, the respondent has lost confidence in the service of the petitioner and so, the petitioner is not entitled to any relief and prays for the dismissal of the same.

4. The points for consideration are :

Whether the petitioner is entitled for the relief as prayed in the claim petition?

5. On points :

On the side of the petitioner, the petitioner was examined as PW1 and Ex.P1 to Ex.P15 were marked.

6. Today the case was called for reporting settlement, petitioner/workman and petitioner Union present, Counsel for respondent present. Memo filed by the petitioner stating that both parties to the dispute have entered into compromise and thereby settlement agreement was entered between the parties on 27-05-2024. In the memo it is further stated that full and final settlement has been arrived between the parties and therefore, the petitioner is withdrawing the dispute raised by him and further to record the same by this Court.

7. Hence, this Court on considering the memo and settlement filed by both parties finds that there does not survive anything more for consideration in this case.

In the result, this petition is disposed in terms of memo filed by the petitioner and settlement agreement, arrived between the petitioner/workman and respondent on 27-05-2024. The settlement agreement, dated 27-05-2024 shall form part and parcel of this Award. There is no order as to costs.

Partly typed by the Stenographer, partly written and pronounced by me in the open Court, on this the 30th day of May, 2024.

G. T. AMBIKA,
Presiding Officer,
Industrial Tribunal-cum-
Labour Court, Puducherry.
