That the claim statement has no merit and not maintainable as against the Respondent Corporation herein. Hence, the petition is liable to be dismissed.

4. Points for determination :

1. Whether the dispute raised by the Petitioners' union against the respondent management, over charter of demands viz.,

- (a) Grant of bonus for the accounting years 2017-18, 2018-19 and 2019-2020;
- (b) Payment of 50% of remaining arrears of VI CPC to the Multipurpose Women Development Helpers who have retired/died and those in service from 01.01.2006 with due interest; and
- (c) Filling up of 50% of the sanctioned posts meant for ICDS (32 posts) by promotion of Multipurpose Women Development Coordinators of which 25% by promotion of SSLC holders and another 25% by degree holders as per Government of India orders are justified are not? If justified, to give appropriate directions?

2. To what other relief the petitioner union is entitled for?

5. On the side of Petitioner, PW1 was examined and Exs. P1 to P17 were marked. On the side of Respondent, RW1 was examined, and Exs. R1 to R7 were marked and Ex. P18 was during during the cross-examination of RW1. Written arguments submitted by both parties.

6. On point No.'s 1 and 2 :

The contention of the petitioner union is that the petitioner union had submitted a charter of demands to the respondent management but, the same did not fetch any positive result and therefore, the petitioner union had submitted the charter of demands before conciliation authority for settlement and though the respondent management in the reply statement and rejoinder filed before the Conciliation Officer had agreed the legitimate claim of the petitioner Union but, did not choose to settle the issues and therefore, the reference of dispute has been made to this Tribunal.

7. The learned Counsel for petitioner union contended that the first charter of demand made by the petitioner union was grant bonus for the accounting years 2017-18, 2018-19 and 2019-2020 and though the respondent management had admitted the said claim of the petitioner union before conciliatory authority and also before this Tribunal by way of counter statement but till date the respondent has not disbursed the bonus for the abovesaid accounting years to its employees.

8. The other contention of the learned Counsel for the petitioner union is that the payment of 50% of remaining arrears of VI Central Pay Commission to the Multipurpose Women Development helpers who have retired/died and those in service had to paid with effect from 01-01-2006 but, the same has not been paid till date even though, the respondent management had admitted the said claim both before Conciliation Officer and before this Tribunal.

9. This Tribunal on perusal of counter filed by the respondent finds that the respondent management has admitted non-payment of bonus for the accounting years 2017-18, 2018-19 and 2019-2020 as contended by the petitioner union and likewise has admitted non-payment of 50% of remaining arrears of VI Central Pay Commission to the Multipurpose Women Development helpers with effect from 01-01-2006. The reason for non-payment of bonus and arrears as put forth by the respondent is that first of all the respondent management is not indulged in any profit making activities and thereby does not have any independent source of income of its own but on the other hand functions with the Grant-in-aid sanctioned and provided by Government of puducherry through Women and Child Development Department and therefore, a proposal for release of Grant-in-aid for payments bonus for the abovesaid accounting years and as well as for payment of VI CPC arrears was addressed to the Department of Women and Child Development, Puducherry, but, however, the funds were not released and therefore, once the respondent management receives grant-in-aid from the Government of Puducherry the pending dues will be settled to its employees.

10. Thus, from the counter filed by the respondent it is an admitted fact that the employees of respondent Corporation are entitled for bonus for the accounting years 2017-18, 2018-19 and 2019-2020 but, the same remains unpaid due to non-availability of funds. This Tribunal finds that section 10 of Payment of Bonus Act, 1965 stipulates that every employer is bound to pay minimum bonus whether or not, the employer has any allocable surplus in the accounting year. Therefore, entitlement of minimum bonus is a statutory right and the employer is legally obligated to pay the bonus to the eligible employees irrespective of the fact as to whether the establishment has made any profit or suffered a loss.

11. Similarly section 19 of Payment of Bonus Act, 1965 stipulates the time-limit for payment of bonus as follows:

Section : 19. Time-limit for payment of bonus.— All amounts payable to an employee by way of bonus under this Act shall be paid in cash by his employer - (a) where there is a dispute regarding payment of bonus pending before any authority under section 22, within a month from the date on which the Award becomes enforceable or the settlement comes into operation, in respect of such dispute;

(b) in any other case, within a period of eight months from the close of the accounting year:

Provided that the appropriate Government or such authority as the appropriate Government may specify in this behalf may, upon an application made to it by the employer and for sufficient reasons, by order, extend the said period of eight months to such further period or periods as it thinks fit; so, however, that the total period so extended shall not in any case exceed two years.

12. Thus, as per section 19 of Payment of Bonus Act, 1965 all amounts payable to the employee by way of bonus has to be paid within a period of eight months from the closing of the accounting year and in case if, the employer submits an application for extension of payment of bonus then in such case, the time for payment of bonus can be extended for a period not exceeding two years.

13. In this case, the delay in payment of bonus is found to have exceeded for more than 7 years and the reason as projected by the respondent corporation that the grant-in-aid has not been received is not a valid legal excuse and thereby is unsustainable one. This Tribunal finds that the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Sakhkar Mills Mazdoor Sangh vs Gwalior Sugar Co. Ltd on 22 February, 1985 reported in AIR 1985 SUPREME COURT 758 has held that the bonus payable to the employees will carry interest at the rate of nine per cent per annum.

14. Hence, applying the abovesaid dictum to the facts of this case, this Tribunal holds that interest would be payable for the delayed payment of bonus from the day it became due. Therefore, this Tribunal holds that it would be appropriate to direct the respondent corporation to pay the bonus for the accounting years 2017-18, 2018-19, 2019-20 with interest at the rate of 4% p.a from the day when the bonus became due until the date of payment within a period of two months failing which the bonus due shall be paid payment of 50% of remaining arrears of VI Central Pay Commission to the Multipurpose Women Development helpers who have retired/died and those in service had to paid with effect from 1.01.2006 with interest at the rate of 9% p.a. from the day when the bonus became due until the date of payment.

15. Similarly, the reason for non-payment of 50% of VI CPC with effect from 1.1.2006 to Multipurpose women development helpers is also unacceptable one and the same being statutory dues cannot be with held for years together for an unlimited period and thereafter, disburse according to the whims and fancies of the respondent corporation. Hence, this Tribunal holds that respondent shall pay the said arrears within a period of two months failing which the same shall be paid with interest at the rate of 9% p.a. from the day when it became due and till the date of payment.

16. The third contention of the petitioner union is that 50% of sanctioned post meant for Integrated Child Development Services (ICDS) (32 posts) has to be filled up by promotion of Multipurpose Women Development Coordinators of which 25% by promotion of SSLC holders and 25% by degree holders as per Government Orders, but, the same has not been done by the respondent management. Whereas, it is the specific contention of the learned Government Pleader appearing for the respondent that the promotional post is governed by ICDS Manual and Government of India guidelines and that apart the same falls under the exclusive administration control of Department of Women and Child Development and hence, the respondent management has no jurisdiction or authority to fill up the said posts.

17. This Tribunal on perusal of cross-examination of RW1 finds that RW1 during his cross-examination has deposed that the charter of demands made by the petitioner Union has been forwarded to the Department of Women and Child development for passing necessary orders but, thereafter no orders has been received by the respondent from the Department of Women and Child Development. Thus, it is found that the promotional post as contended by the petitioner union has been left vacant without any justifiable reasons.

18. This Tribunal finds that unjustifiably leaving the post vacant without any promotion would amount to denial of career progression but however it is the specific contention of the learned Government Pleader that the filling up of vacancy by way of promotion is under the domain of Department of women and child Development. Hence in the said circumstances this tribunal finds that it would be suffice to direct the respondent to coordinate with Women and Child Department and to fill up the sanctioned posts meant for ICDS by way of promotion at the earliest as per the prevailing rules. Thus, this Tribunal from the above discussions holds that the Industrial Dispute raised by the petitioner union is justifiable one.

In the result, this petition is allowed with modification by directing the respondent Corporation to pay the bonus for the accounting years 2017-18, 2018-19, 2019-20 with interest at the rate of 4% p.a from the day when the bonus became due until the date of payment within a period of two months failing which the bonus due shall be paid with interest at the rate of 9% p.a. from the day when the bonus became due until the date of payment and similarly, the respondent is directed to pay 50% of remaining arrears of VI Central Pay Commission to the Multipurpose Women Development helpers who have retired/died and those in service with effect from 1.01.2006 within a period of two months failing which the same shall be paid with interest at the rate of 9% p.a. from the day when it became due and till the date of payment and likewise the respondent is directed to coordinate with the Department of Women and Child Development to fill up 50% of sanctioned post meant for Integrated Child Development Services (ICDS) by way of promotion at the earliest as per the prevailing rules. There is no order as to costs.
