(b) Whether alternation of service conditions of 47 workmen during the pendency of conciliation proceedings which is in violation of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 is justified or not? If justified, what relief the 47 workmen are entitled to?

(c) To compute the relief, if any awarded in terms of money, if it can be so computed.

2. The learned Counsel for petitioner in the connected case in ID(L).No. 16/2022 has filed memo stating that as against the order passed by NCLT, Kolkata, the petitioner herein has filed appeal before Hon'ble Supreme Court in C.A.No. 005018/2023. The learned Counsel for respondent contended that as the petitioner herein has not approached Resolution Professional the petitioner is not entitled for any relief and further this reference itself is unsustainable as per Indian Bankruptcy Code. Today the learned Counsel for petitioner endorsed "no instructions from petitioner".

3. As this case is pending for long time without any progress and further on considering the endorsement made by the learned Counsel for petitioner and on considering the representation made by the learned Counsel for respondent this Court is inclined to close this reference.

In the result on recording the above this reference is closed.

Written and pronounced by me in open Court, on this the 04th day of May, 2026.

G.T. AMBIKA,
Presiding Officer,
Industrial Tribunal-cum-
Labour Court, Puducherry.
